LUNCHES FOR SCHOOL PUPILS.

Address at Fort Washington by R. W. Balderston.

Talk Before the Home and School League Shows Advantages of the System— Remarks by Miss Myrtle Barger and Miss Jeannette Bliss.

"Children in the country districts are often starving for good food, while milk, eggs, and other wholesome food ie about them in abundance. From thirty-three to fifty per cent. of children of school age are suffering from mal-nourishment, and this holds as well among country children as among those of the city."

These facts were made known to the members of the Home and School league of Fort Washington at its meeting, held recently in the Upper Dublin school auditorium. Miss Myrtle Barger, a nutrition worker in the Philadelphia schools, told some striking facts about the under-nourished children among when she works. Miss Jeanette Bliss, of State college, who organizes school hot lunches throughout Montgomery and Bucks counties, gave pointers to those who are planning hot lunches for the Fort Washington School.

"We are accustomed to think of the United States as a nation of exceptionally healthy people," said Miss Barger, "but as a matter of fact we rate low. We are eighth on the list. That means that there are seven countries, most of which are years behind us in industrial development, that are above us in the standard of health. America has forged ahead in efficiency and industrial devopment but has neglected the health of her children.

"The extent of this neglect was never appreciated until the war came along, and the examinations of our young men for the draft revealed that only 60 per cent. were fit to fight.".

She pointed out that physical incapacity had its start in childhood when insufficient nourishment undermined the health and lowered the power of resistance to disease. Insufficient nourishment, she said, is not because of poverty, but because of ignorance as to what foods are needed for the upbuilding of a strong childhood. Mal-nourishment is just as frequent among children of the wealthy as among the poor, and children from the country often suffer as much as city children.

In telling of her experiences, Miss Bliss said that the children of the country districts are in many cases living on one meal a day.

"Where they reside a long distance from the school house, children of the country districts will often eat a hurried bite and rush out to school. They actually bolt their food, and then walk a long distance to school. At noon, they are anxious to get outside to join in the games and consequently, they 'bolt down' another sandwich and run out to play. So they do not have one real meal until supper time comes, and then, because they are really hungry, they overeat and go straight to bed."

"The one best solution," pointed out Miss Barger, "is the consumption of more milk. At least one quart of milk should be consumed by every child. It need not be all taken in liquid form. A glass of milk at bed time should be the rule. But milk can be agreeably consumed in milk soups, hot cocoa and other dishes."

She declared that teachers in the schools where milk is served, find that the children become more tractable and more agreeable, and that their lessons are learned far more easily than before. She pointed out that in Germany where children were extremely under nourished, certain diseases of the eye became prevalent. Many ills, she declared, are directly due to insufficient nourishment, although they are not directly traceable.

The question of school lunches was discussed and plans were instituted for hot lunches in the Fort Washington school, following the talks given by the nutrition workers.

As a results of a discussion recently held among the farmers there will be quite a number that will go in for raising turkeys next year. They point out the success of their neighbors who raised quite a number this year. Then, too, the high price paid is also quite attractive and an incentive for the effort. Hvaing control of the dogs, as it is now under the present law, will help the farmers also, as it is a known fact that the raising of sheep and turkeys was discontinued because so many animals were killed by dogs allowed to run at large. Under the present dog law every owner is held responsible for what his pet does, and if the owner cannot be found then the state must pay for any of the live stock killed.

The new store recently opened in the former Western school house has been discontinued and the stock has been purchased by Harry M. Nase.

The West Point Athletic association held a largely attended and successful shoot last Monday. Some of the best shots in this section attended and good scores were made. The regular monthly meeting of the West Point Fire company will be held next Monday evening, at which time the newly elected officers will take their seats.

The decision of Judge Swartz, which was handed down last week in the Upper Gwynedd school board election case, has somewhat upset the arrangements of the present members. The contest was over the election officers allowing one vote to be counted for J. M. Reed that the court ruled should have been thrown out, and which results in another tie. The first tie was between Mr. Hilligass and Mrs. Walton. The former refused to draw and the board appointed Mr. Kibblehouse. According to what can be learned there is likely to be a contest on this appointment by the women voters in behalf of their candidate. The second tie is now between Mrs. aWtoln and Mr. Reed.

BANDITS AT WHITEMARSH

Surprised at Work, Chased to Roxborough.

Were Robbing Freight Cars Along the Trenton Cut-off—Railroad Detectives Batter Motor Car With Guns—Thieves Escape.

Four freight car robbers escaped after a revolver battle with Pennsylvania Railroad detectives, during a long chase from Whitemarsh to Roxborough recently.

The robbers were surprised at 4.30 A. M., by railroad detectives, while looting cars at the St. Thomas' Pumping Station above Whitemarsh, which is five miles above Chestnut Hill.

There have been so many car and station robberies along the lines of the Pennsy recently that many extra detective details patrol tracks in motors on lines near Philadelphia. One of these details detected the thieves.

The detectives lay in wait for an opportunity to catch the men . As they hid, a freight train with a big electric light came by and the strong light showed the detectives to the thieves.

The robbers at once opened fire, as they ran to a big motor car they had parked on a nearby hill. They got a good start and the detectives followed in their smaller machine.

The detectives' motor was too far behind the bandits' machine to fire at the beginning of the chase, but it gained as the chase wound through various roads on a wild drive through the snow and sleet

When the Roxborough section was reach , the detectives 'motor had come within shooting distance of the other car. The detectives opened fire. One had a shot gun. The rear of the robbers' motor car was torn away, just as it reached Monastery and Ridge avenues.

The robbers leaped out and fled into the darkness. Although the vicinity was searched, there was no trace of them.

According to J. C. Harper, superintendent of the railroad police, there are about fifty different gangs of thieves who have been "playing hob" in the last few months with merchandise in transport, thousands of dollars worth being stolen.

He said the gang surprised recently is a different one from that which was detected reaing into Lenni station about a week ago, in which two of tht alleged bandits were shot in a fight with five detectives.

"The operations and make up of these gangs are surprising and would seem beyond belief to one who does not know," said the Superintendent. "Some of them have but a few members, others as many as fifteen. And the patrols we maintain to try to cope with them would be a revelation to the pubic.

NEW LICENSE APPLICATIONS

Forms Show No Accommodation for Public.

The Word "Non-Intoxicating" in Large Letters Before "Spirituous," Vinors," Etc.—not Required Now to Show Necessity of the Business.

To secure licenses to sell bewed, malted, vinous or spiritous liquors in Montgomery county it will no longer be necessary to show that the place for which a license is asked is equipped for public, according to the new application blanks which are being formulated by Clerk of the Courts Johnson, under the supervision of the court, for the use of license holders, old and prospective, when they ask for licenses for the year 1922-23, next March.

This is only one of the more or less radical changes made necessary by compliance with the legislation passed at Harrisburg on this subject on May 5 last.

Perhaps the most radical, however, is the insertion of the word "non-intoxicating" before the words "vinous, spirituous, malt or brewed liquors."

The new law makes no change whatever in the methods and time of license court in this county, as these details are arranged for by rules of court.

The word "non-intoxicating" on the application is followed by the words "or any admixture thereof as defined by the amendatory act of 5th May, 1921, No. 192 at retail in quantities not exceeding one quart." The license certificate which is issued by the Clerk of the Courts to each successful applicant wil also bear the words "non-intoxicating" in large type before the words "spirituous, vinous, etc."

In the first, second, third and fourth sections the wording of the petition remains the same as heretofore.

The fifth is cut out, this being the one made it incumbent upon an applicant to show that this place was necessary for the transaction of business.

The tenth section, which was, in a sense, a "follow up" of the fifth, is also omitted. It provided that "the said applicant further represents that the said house where the business is to be conducted is well provided with accommodations for strangers and travelers."

The sixth, seventh and eighth sections remain the same as heretofore, but ninth is eliminated. This provided for two sureties. These, who are reputable freeholders of the county of Montgomery, where said liquors are to be sold, will, if approved by the Court, be the sureties on the bond which is required by law. "Each of said sureties is a bona fide owner of real estate in said county, worth over and above all incumbrances the sum of two thousand dollars, which real estate would sell for that much at public sale; and neither of said sureties is engaged in the manufacture of spirituous vinous, malt or brewed liquors."

This means that, so far as the petition is concerned, the giving of sureties is eliminated. Despite this the court has authorized the printing of bond forms which follow the lines of the past with the exception of a few minor and immaterial changes.

Apparently, in the future, it will be about as easy and simple a matter to secure a license to sell "liquor" in Montgomery county as it is to open an ice cream stand.

Have You Seen

The New Bungalows

we are offering for sale for Mr. Jos. H. Fretz, on Ridge Ave. & North Spring Garden St., Ambler? Since the close of the war we have urged Mr. Fretz to build bungalows, to meet the increasing demand for one-floor homes. The fact that we have sold three, out of an operation of eight, two or three months before their completion, proves that these bungalows are appealing to the families that are weary of housekeeping homes that are unnecessarily large. Have you seen them? If not why not let us show them to you, and tell you of the easy terms on which you can buy one of these work reducing bungalows.

AMBLER BANK TO ENLARGE.

Fine New Building Planned for Well Known Institution.

John T. Brugger, of Philadelphia, Bank Designer, Engaged as Architect—Work to Start in Spring—Old Building to Be Moved to the Rear—Description.

The First National Bank of Ambler will occupy new and enlarged quarters some time during the fall of 1922. This has been decided upon by the Board of Directors, which has employed John T. Brugger, of Philadelphia, as its architect, following a competition during whch several architects submitted tentative plans. Mr. Brugger is working under the advice of a building committee of the Board and has already sufficiently progressed with his plans as to unable the "Gazette" to present the following description of the proposed building, wherein is incorporated every convenience for the public safety in all respects and facility for the officers, the necessary employes and the equipment of the institution.

In the designing of the bank building the architect has designed the building with classic architectural motives and endeavored to make it fit in harmoniously as near as possible to the surrounding buildings, which are of simple and substantal suburban character, and to bring the cost of the structure within a moderate figure.

The exterior of the building will be executed in Indiana lime stone in the style of Italian Renaissance treated in pilasters with large windows between, affording abundance of light in the main banking room.

The main entrance to the building will be from Butler avenue, and on each side of the entrance, will be placed lamp standards that will illuminate the entire Butler Avenue facade at night. The means of entrance will be through bronze revolving doors and an entrance lobby treated in three groined arches, flanked on the right side by a Ladies Rest Room, to be finished in Adams style of architecture with every convenience for the women depositors and on the left side will be officers' rooms, finished in the Tudor style of architecture.

After passing through the entrance lobby, the depositor will find himself or herself in the grand central lobby, 22 feet in width, by 42 feet in length, flanked on the right side by seven teller cages and on the left side by the offices of the bank. This central lobby will be finished in a selected grade of domestic marble, including the banking screen, a balustrade separating the officers from the depositors. The entire floor of the central lobby is to be of marble. The result to be obtained from this first floor arangement, will give ample room and comfort for the depositors and the quick handling for their business transactions. This central lobby will be larger than the entire banking room of the present bank.

To the rear of the central lobby, will be placed a safe deposit vault and flanked on each side of the vault will be eight private coupon booths for the use of depositors. The vault itself will be the last word in fireproof and burglarproof construction, and will provide space for three thousand safe deposit boxes ranging in size from 1 1-2 to 18 inches.

In the rear of the building, will also be found two settlement room and space devoted to the book-keeping department. This room will be provided with an acoustic ceiling which is conjunction with the cork floor, deadens the noise of the rapid operation of the many adding machines, and adds considerably to the efficiency of the employes in this department.

This entire arrangement or layout will occupy an area of 58 feet on Butler avenue by 90 feet 6 inches along Spring Garden street.

On the second floor which will be in the rear of the building, and overlooking the main banking room, will be located the Board of Directors' room. The filing department will also be on this floor, and a great deal of time and thought has been devoted to this department. Nowadays a bank in order to render a complete and comprehensive service, must place a great deal of dependance on an accurate and quick-working filing system. Every modern thought and appliance will be incorporated in this department for a helpful service to the bank's depositor. A rest room will also be provided on this floor for the employes.

In the basement, a portion will be devoted to storage room for supplies of stationary used by the bank, and the safekeeping of old records, and also a vault for the use of the depositors in storing away trunks and valuables of size.

The First National Bank when finished will offer to the people of Ambler and surrounding country a complete equipment in every detail, as it will be the last word in bank building.

In order to not inconvenience the depositors, the present bank building will be moved to a new location in the rear so as to avoid the dust, dirt and confusion caused by erecting the new building around the present one. This will also allow the architect and contractors to construct a building in a shorter length of time than it would otherwise. Contract for this removal work has already been awarded to John Deare's Sons, well known engineers of Philadelphia, and the present bank, vaults and all, will be moved bodily to the rear. The present sheds will be removed, adjoining the rear of the present bank property, the Board of Directors have purchased from the Knight estate a 30-foot lot along South Spring Garden street, and on this property the present bank building will be moved and banking business conducted therein until the new building is completed. After the latter is occupied, the old bank building will be remodeled into two stores and two apartments facing on South Spring Garden street.

Make Lots of Speedway.

The Philadelphia Motor Speedway association, near Hatboro, will be cut member of the association, has presented to the Bucks county courts a petition asking permission to cut up into building lots. William L. Ferguson, 5937 Wayne avenue, Philadelphia, acting as trustee and individual the 409 acres of land belonging to the company at the intersection of Old York road and Street road, in Warminster township, Bucks county.

Carversville Site For an Orphange.

Carversville is to have a large institution, an orphanage of the Christian church, in the near future.

The New Jersey conference of the Christian church of New Jersey has been given an option to buy the Hillside academy property, and the work of organization for a charter for the Northern Christian orphanage has been made. Plans are being made for a local program in support of the movement.

There are nineteen churches in the New Jersey conference.

The property purchased is what was formerly the Excelsior institution which was known years ago. Besides a fine main building there are other smaller buildings and 12 acres of ground.

Hens for Breeding.

In mating up poultry for breeding stock, it pays to keep an eye not only on the objects you have in view but also the difficulties likely to be encountered.. For this reason some folks say it is best to cull out the inferior birds (instead of picking out the best, and sell them. Then weed out all but the best male birds and if you don't have a sufficient number of topnotch specimens then buy your requirements from a reliable breeder.

Breed for small combs, heavy feathering on the body, clean, strong limbs, activity and early maturity, so as to have a hardy, prolific flock. By selecting in this manner, and using the best possible males, the flock should show improvement each season.—Briant Sando in Farm Life.

Resident Fisherman's License Law.

The resident fisherman's license law which was approved by the governor the 16th day of May, 1921, becomes effective the first day of January, 1922, and provides that all citizens of the state of Pennsylvania (male or female). over 21 years of age must take out a license to fish or angle in any of the waters of this commonwealth or in the waters bounding or adjacent thereto.

These licenses can be secured from the county treasurer of any county, or the department of fisheries, Harrisburg, the department of fisheries, Harrisburg Pa., upon the payment of $1 for each license, together with the cost of treasurer's fee, if secured through him. In applying for license the applicant must give name, residence, occupation and age. The act provides that for violations the fine is $25, and the department of fisheries will endeavor to enforce the same.

All persons who are interested in the propagation of fish and the purification of the streams are urged to take out their license by January 1st, as the appropriations received from the last legistlature by the department of fisheries were only sufficient to operate all branches of its work until January 1, 1922.

Old York Road Country Club.

Reports showing the old York Road Country club has just rounded out one of the most successful seasons since its organization were submitted at the annual meeting of members held in the club house, Jenkintown.

A large attendance of members at the meeting applauded descriptions of how the golf course had been improved and maintained throughout the year with the result that many golf enthusiasts were attracted to the links.

The house committee returned to the club treasury $3000 from an unexpended appropriation. Suggestions made by this committee and others for the re-modeling of the club house were followed by a request from the membership for a special meeting on January 11 next, whe n details of the project will be considered.

Election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: President, M. D. Robinson; first vice-president, J. Scott Fowler; second vice-president, M. W. Montgomery; secretary, John R. Roberts, and treasurer, C. J. MacGriffin, Board of Governors: Henry M. Paist, Joseph Shaw, William A. Weaver, Lewis Buhin and W. Parke Moore.

The following committee chairman were re-appointed: House committee, Henry M. Paist; Greens committee, Edward S. Radley and property committee, A. H. Manwaring.

Third Auto From Quarry.

State Police report that a third automobile has been recovered from the quarry hole at Orevilla. First an Oldsmobile was fished out of the water, then a Dodge touring car, and late the next afternoon, a second Dodge touring car was hauled out with the derrick.

License tags on the two Dodgecars had been removed previous to dumping the machines into the quarry hole. There is every indication, it was stated, that still other machines are buried beneath the water, in the quarry.

Corporal R. W. Shaver has been notified by Controller Horace D. Smedley to hold all automobiles salvaged from the quarry hole by the state police, until expenses incurred by the county in the operation, be paid.

This instruction was sent out from the court house, following the finding of an Overland car in the 40-foot lake in Hatfield township. The county commissioners directed the recovery of the machines.

Want Receiver for Transit Co.

Proceedings to have a receiver appointed for the Montgomery Traction company have been instituted in the office of the Prothonotary by Attorney D. Yeakle Miller in the form of equity proceedings brought in behalf of C. S. Newall, Otho Nowland and J. Rich Grier, and naming the transit company, the Norristown Trust company and the Liberty Title and Trust Company as respondents. The two trust companies are made defendants by virtue of their position as trustee for the bondholders.

Waterback Explodes.

Great excitement prevailed in the home of Mrs. Fred. Zogenitz, on Center avenue, in the heart of the Jewish settlement at Marble Hall, when a waterback in the kitchen exploded with great force, wrecking the stove and scattering hot coal and ashes around the room.

An alarm of fire was immediately turned into the Barren Hill Fire company and to other companies. Conshohocken No. 2 responded immediately, but when they arrived the members of the family had succeeded in extinguishing the blaze.

Mr. Zogenitz was badly burned about the hands and arms.

The damage by fire was very trifling, but the force of the explosion badly wrecked the kitchen, entailing a loss of several dollars.

Judge Clears a Motorist.

J. Stroud Weber, an Evansburg lawyer, was adjudged not guilty of violation of the automobile laws by Judge Miller in anopinion filed on the appeal with the attorney had taken from summary conviction by Justice of the Peace Saylor, of Collegeville. He had been fined $10 and $2.50 costs.

Weber was arrested by a member of the State police in Collegeville on the evening of August 24,, charged with operating an automobile with only one headlight burning. Judge Miller declared that the evidence showed that the arrest was made within one hour after sunset, so that there was no violation of law.

It has been a long time since our residents have enjoyed anything so pleasing and novel as the affair last Saturday evening, Christmas eve, when the students of Carson college rendered many beautiful Christmas carols, while marching over the highways. The students started from Wissahickon avenue to the pike to Mill road to the college again. Wherever there was a candle lighted in a window the girls stopped and sang.

This section was greatly aroused one morning last week when it was learned that an attack had been made upon Herman Bonzel, by a couple of negroes. Mr. Bonzel is a watchman on George Widener's place and after he had been beaten into insensibility he was stripped of his clothing and left lying in the road. Later he was removed to the Chestnut Hill hospital, and at this writing his condition is reported to be somewhat improved. However his injuries are still considered serious, as he is suffering from a fractured skull and a number of cuts about the body. Detectives working on the case it is reported, have apprehended one of the men and it is said that the other will also be taken into custody within a few days. According to report the two men were employed in the quarries at Lancasterville.

Mrs. William Gerstlauer was greatly surprised on Christmas morning to receive a most beautiful gift in the form of one of the latest and most improved player pianos.

The public school entertainment on Thursday evening was well attended, and according to our oldest residents her it was one of the most commendable ever held, and much credit is given to Miss Emma Comly, principal, for training th echildren in program. Among the features that were greatly appreciated and enjoyed was a piano solo by little Edward McCloskey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCloskey.

Among those who received awards at the recent event given by the local camp, P. S. of A., were: A. W. Yetter, Ambler, turkey; Mr. Colson, Erdenheim, goose, and Mrs. M. R. Snyder, duck.

Clement Comly has purchased a new motor delivery truck.

H. A. Clark has had heat and light installed in his large new garage on the pike.

Albright & Mebes, contractors, are building a driveway for George Widener.

George Snyder recently had quite an experience while in Harrisurg and at present he is minus a $50 overcoat and a sum of money. He had been attending a week-end party with a number of friends at the above place, and later after returning from escorting one of the young ladies home he was nearing the place where his friends were when a negro stepped out from the shadow of a building and commanded him to throw up his hands at the same time pressing the barrel of a revolver against the side of his head. A moment later the man was going through his pockets, from which he secured a sum of money, and then he compelled George to hand over his overcoat, which had recently been bought for $50 and worn but twice. Despite an all-night search the highwayman made good his escape.

On Thursday evening a Christmas cantata will be held by the Lutheran church of this vicinity.

Robert Everett, who was doing special work in the Wanamaker store during the Christmas rush, has completed his labors.

Barren Hill Home and School League.

On Thursday evening the fourth meeting of the Home and School League was held at the Barren Hill Consolidated school, with quite a large attendance. The auditorium and class rooms were prettily decorated with Christmas bels, Christmas trees, wonderful chalk and crayon work on the black boards, etc.

After a short prayer by President Chamberlin, the school children rendered a cantata entitled "The Real Santa Claus" Words utterly fail to express, how well the children all took parts without a break from beginning to end. They more than deserve credit for their wonderful work, also their teachers for the patience in training them to take their parts so well.

Rev. Mr. Groton gave an illustrated talk on "The Debts We Owe" warning the children of borrowing money from their schoolmates uness they know they can pay it back in a very short time, telling them of the debt they owe to their parents and home and of the debt every one owes to his and her church, making the talk very interesting indeed.

There are still only just a handful of people who visited the school the past month. Now surely after the wonderful cantata that every one enjoyed so much, considering Mr. Groton's theme there seems to be a debt that is owed to the school teachers by the people not taking the interest they should in coming to the school to see just what the teachers are doing for their chidren. It is hoped for a better report from the chairman of the visiting committee next monh.

The improvement committee reported there are tables needed in the lunch room in the basement, and it will be greatly appreciated if boards and trestles are donated so that these tables can be made. At the next meeting, Jan. 27th, Pro. Calvin O. Althouse, of Central High school, Philadelphia, will give a talk on "School Law." He is very interesting; in fact a regular live wire and it will be to every one's interest to come and hear him. The meeting closed, by every one rising and giving a vote of thanks to the teachers for the wonderful entertainment and then by each one turning to the one next to him or her, shaking hands and wishing a merry Christmas and a happy new year.

—Abraham Echwenk, aged 96, of Norristown, died on Dec. 21.

TOWN TOPICS.

For 1922 auto licenses see I. K. B. Hansell, Knight building, Ambler, adv tf

Howard J. Dager, real estate broker, has issued a beautiful calendar for the new year.

Hotel Wyndham stables, which were damaged by fire some weeks ago, have been neatly cleaned up.

Silverman, the tailor of North Main street, has purchased of George W. G. Wiess the brick house on Butler avenue, which has been occupied for some years by J. Roehm Lesher.

A reliable, dependable, easy running, easy riding, economical in gasoline, oil and assuring long life to tires—such is the car you are looking for. I beg to call your attention to the Buick. Examine it critically, ask a Buick owner and let me demonstrate its many commendable features. —Rudolph Speelholfer, agent. adv

The users of the supply of the Ambler Spring Water company who are located along the 10-inch main upon Butler avenue and the immediate branches thereof on Main and other streets, have to thank William J. Devine for the generally satisfactory character of their water supply, as it was his fundamental idea which caused the delivery of the artesian well water at the intake pipe of the main town supply for Ambler.

C. Marvin Riley, who has purchased from Harry V. Everham a tract 20 feet in width along Butler avenue, being a portion of the Knipe estate, has been preparing to build theron early in the spring. He has cut down the pine trees on the lot and has utilized trunks in constructing a bridge across the creek from Race street. Water has also been introduced into the property preparatory to the building operation, plans for which are being considered.

Holstein Roberts has returned from Amherst college and is spending the holidays at his parental home in Ambler.

Monday evening January 2nd Ambler borough fathers will organize for two years, as the law requires. With this in mind the utmost care should be exercised in the selection of officers and chairmen of the several committees. This is no reflection upon the retiring officials and chairmen. However there is no denying the fact that in some instances much more could have been accomplished and a better attendance given by some of the members. All this is of the past, and the future is now before the members, and it is hoped that for the next two years a great deal may be accomplished for the borough. During the last six months every effort has been made by the present members to pay borough's floating debt, and every bill paid has been gone over carfully, and in addition no money has been expended except where obsolutly necessary. The budget system was adopted the past year after a bitter fight and considerable opposition on the part of, it is pleasing to say, out one member. Thanks to the efforts of Treas. S. A. Faust, the budget has been kept in an excellent manner so that the members may see just how the money has been and is being paid out. During the present year it is safe to say that because of the budget system very nearly $2000 was saved. The money spent on the highway, was kept within the limit, while in other years it was estimated that between $7000 and $8000 was spent in the work. It was said a short time ago by the members that the cost on the streets this year will be about $5000. Because of the debt that the borough was carrying, and the increased cost on every hand the members of council were obliged to raise the tax rate to 12 mills for the year 1921. It is not too much to expect the new council that this rate may be reduced. To help in the council need but stop the leaks that are now alleged to be evident to some of the citizens. In closing the present year there are regrets, but none moreso than the loss the citizens of the services of J. Walter Lauer, who retires with the old years. Mr. Lauer declined to be a candidate to succeed himself, and in his retirement policies that were for the best interest the borough loses who stood only for of the borough and its taxpayers. With the close of the year Burgess Allen also retires from that office and will enter council. Mr. Allen, to, has been a most efficient officials and has stood back of the police in maintaining order throughout the borough, and in addition he has been ready to assist where ever his services were needed. What of the new burgess, Robert H. Anderson? The borough is to be congratulated in having selected a man for its chief magistrate who is of a known as practical and efficient, Mr. Anderson has been a resident of Ambler since his boyhood days. He is well known among all our citizens, and his ability to do things successfully has stamped him as a man most eminently fitted for the office. His great ambition is to promote harmony and peace among our borough officials that greater things may be accomplished and that all work together for one purpose, the promotion of a borough second to none along the North Penn. Our board of health also needs to be commended for its efficient work the past year. Secretary J. R. Lesher and Health Officer Richard S. Ford "Have been on the job," and throughout the year their efforts have been of helpfullness rather than burdensome upon our residents.

The school board members are not to be overlooked. It has been said time and again by those who know and even by those who reside outside of the borough that Ambler has one of the best, if not the very best, school boards that may be found anywhere in the county. Too much praise can not be given these men who have been working with but one object in mind, that of establisting in Ambler one of the best schools found anywhere in the state Now that our citzens have given the members the power to borrow $100.000 their expectations are to be realized and within a few years Ambler will be the seat of higher education a number of adjoining townships. In conclusion, the "Gazette" extends its very best wishes for a merry Christmas and a happy New Year in officials and citizens alike.

Probation Officer Resigns.

A blow to the probation and welfare work in the county was received recently when Miss Kate Brusstar handed in her resignation to take effect January 14th. Miss Brusstar has been the county probation officer for almost six years and during that time she has done such sufficient work as to attract the attention of authorities in other sections hence the reason for her resignation. Miss Brusstar upon leaving there will take up the same work in Camden county where she will not only have charge of the probation work in the county, but the state as well, her office will be located in the city hall, Camden. She takes up her work in New Jersey at a greatly increased salary.

Has Desperado's Gun.

Major Romanus Fellman, warden of Montgomery county jail, has a .38-calibre revolver that belonged to "Tom" Slaughter, desperado and penitentiary breaker, who escaped from the Little Rock prison and was killed.

Conshohocken Gets Clean Health Bill.

Health Officer Roberts, of Conshohocken, stated that with a single exception Conshohocken is free from contagious disease of any kind. The only case on the record being that of Miss Florence Pierson, suffering from a slight attack of diphtheria, which is a wonderful showing for a town of 8500 inhabitants at this season of the year.

American House Sold.

The Crescent apartments, better known as the American house, Sellersville, was offered at public sale recently. The property consists of the fine building, formerly a hotel, and a shed and former brick residence at the rear. The owner, Peter Ziegenfuss, withdrew it from sale, the highest bid, $7000 offered by Curwen Y. Lutz was deemed insufficient. The property was sold, however, to Mr. Lutz privately the same day. The new owner will take possession the 1st of March. He will continue to rent it as a business place and apartments.

Comfort Buys Grocery.

The grocery store of W. L. Colflesh, at Marshall and Astor streets, Norristown, has been purchased by Charles J. Comfort, of Fifth and Mill streets, Bridgeport.

The deal has been under considerable for some time past, but the establishment was not really in the hands of the new purchaser until recently. Mr. Comfort will take the store under management tomorrow morning. He expects to remove from this borough to his new residence soon.

Golf Ball Injured Eye.

An attempt to hammer the cover off a golf ball resulted in serious injury to William Yocum, aged eight years, of Plymouth Meeting which may result in loss of sight in one of his eyes.

The lad placed the ball on a rock and began to hammer at the cover when the ball slipped from his grasp and struck him in the eye. He was taken to Montgomery Hospital where physicians say that careful treatment will be necessary to prevent a permanent injury.

Gas Man.

The abbreviation "B. T. U.," used in connection with gas standards, means British Thermal Unit, and is the quantity of heat required to raise the temperature of one pound of water one degree in temperature.

Thus heat, like many of the things we Use, such as cloth, sugar, potatoes and lumber, can be and is measured.

Whenburned, gas gives up or produces a definite number of Heat Units. Tests are made periodically during the day at our Gas Plant to make sure that the proper number of heat units are in every cubic foot of gas we send out.

There is no guesswork in the gas business. Both the Quality and Quantity of gas are determined by machines that are scientifically perfect.

The money distributed to workers and for bills paid amounted to $4008.40, and bills outstanding total $522. Added to the expenses is the sum of $900 used for refurnishing the party headquarters whish leaves the committee in a hole for $1290.73.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Mother's Favorite.

The soothing and healing properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, its pleasant taste and prompt and effectual cures have made it a favorite with people everywhere. It is especially prized by mothers of young children for colds, croup and whooping cough, as it always affords quick relief and is free from opium and other harmful drugs. dec

Telford Casher to Go to Lansdale

Vincent B. Kulp, who has been Cashier of the Telford National Bank for a number of years, has handed his resignation to the board of directors, the same to go into effect on January 1st.

Mr. Kulp has been chosen cashier of the First National Bank, Lansdale, and will succeed E. R. Musselman, the present cashier, who has resigned.

Taking Desperate Chances.

It is true that many contract severe colds and recover from them without taking any precaution or treatment, and a knowledge of this fact leads others to take their chances instead of giving their colds the needed attention. It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality, makes the system less able to withstand each succeeding attack and paves the way for the more serious diseases. Can you afford to take such desperate chances when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of bad colds may be had for a trifle? dec

May Never Identify 13 Victims' Bodies

Identification may never be made of thirteen victims of the Bryn Athyn wreck.

Their remains, burned beyond recognition, are with nine identified bodies in an improvised morgue at Jenkintown. On blankets and stretchers are six groups of charred bones, all that is left of six men and women passengers.

When You Are Constipated.

To insure a healthy action of the bowels and correct disorders of the liver, take two of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper. They will not only cause a gentle movement of the bowels, without unpleasant effects, but banish that dull, sttupid feeling, that often accompanies constipation. dec

Owing to the present condition of business in the paper industry the manufacture and sale of the product of the W. C.
